

---

Contact Information

---

Name: Jedidjah de Vries
Address: Linnaeusparkweg 145
Amsterdam, 1098CW
Phone: +31 (06) 3313-7522
Email: Jedidjah@J-dV.org

---

Education History

---

Graduate: University of Amsterdam, Graduate School of Social Science
MA in Social Theory and Public Affairs
2009 – 2010 (expected)

Undergrad: University of California, Santa Barbara
BA in Philosophy, Ethics & Public Policy emphasis
2003 – 2006

---

Publications

---

2009. Alienation and Academia. Amsterdam Social Science. 1(4). 63-70

Abstract: Academics often fail to appreciate the ethical import of their work. Marx's theory of alienation offers a lens through which to understand how researches comes to be distanced from the ethical implications of their work.

---

Work History

---

Employer: Tri-Valley CAREs
Position: Outreach Director
February 2007 – June 2008
Development, implementation and oversight of community outreach strategies, media relations, planning and coordination of local and nation-wide events and actions, support of grassroots initiatives and student movements, lobbying of Congress and other organizations .

Employer: Nuclear Age Peace Foundation
Position: Web Developer / Graphic Communications
July 2006 – January 2007
Web site management, development, planning and organization of political events, conferences and actions .

Employer: Jerusalem Foundation
Position: Intern, Public Relations Department
Summer 2005

Planning of Interfaith interactions, website development, participation in international conference, authorship of research papers, web-articles and magazine articles on coexistence and community empowerment issues.

Employer: Jerusalem Ethics Library at the Mishkenot Sha'ananim Culture Center

Position: Intern

Summer 2005

Development of collection, acquisition of new volumes and texts, organization.

---

Activities & Achievements

Ran for Santa Barbara Elementary & High school District School Board (November 2004 Election)

Youngest candidate to date to run in district-wide State elections (at age 18), included: running of campaign, raising funds, creation of platform, web site design, forums, televised debate panels and discussions, media relations (newspaper, television and radio), and meetings with voters and the general public.

---

Skills

Computer: Building web pages using: HTML, CSS, PHP, SQL

Graphic design using Adobe products & open source equivalent

Advanced Office Skills

Media: Writing press releases /advisories & conducting call backs

Interviews & Press Conferences

Developing media relationships

Languages: English (native)

Hebrew (fluent)

Dutch (fluent)